DRAGAN ZARIC, an individual,

NOTICE! You have been sued. The court may decide against you without your being heard unless you respond within 30 days. Read the information below.

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association. NOTE: The court has a statutory lien for waived fees and costs on any settlement or arbitration award of $10,000 or more in a civil case. The court's lien must be paid before the court will dismiss the case. ¡AVISO! Lo han demandado. Si no responde dentro de 30 días, la corte puede decidir en su contra sin escuchar su versión. Lea la información a continuación.

Tiene 30 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.sucorte.ca.gov), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de exención de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia.

Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. Puede encontrar estos grupos sin fines de lucro en el sitio web de California Legal Services, (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California, (www.sucorte.ca.gov) o poniéndose en contacto con la corte o el colegio de abogados locales. AVISO: Por ley, la corte tiene derecho a reclamar las cuotas y los costos exentos por imponer un gravamen sobre cualquier recuperación de $10,000 ó más de valor recibida mediante un acuerdo o una concesión de arbitraje en un caso de derecho civil. Tiene que pagar el gravamen de la corte antes de que la corte pueda desechar el caso.

Defendants.

Case No. 22STCV11504

PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES ALLEGING:

1. RETALIATION (FEHA/CFRA);
2. DISABILITY DISCRIMINATION;
3. AGE DISCRIMINATION;
4. NATIONAL ORIGIN/ANCESTRY DISCRIMINATION;
5. FAILURE TO TAKE ALL REASONABLE STEPS TO PREVENT DISCRIMINATION AND RETALIATION; and
6. WRONGFUL TERMINATION IN VIOLATION OF PUBLIC POLICY (Disability)

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff Dragan Zaric, based upon personal knowledge as to all acts or events that Plaintiff has undertaken or witnessed, and upon information and belief as to all others, alleges:

INTRODUCTION

This case is brought under California's Fair Employment and Housing Act (FEHA). Defendant Microsoft Corporation retaliated and discriminated against Plaintiff by considering

1 Plaintiff's disability, age, and national origin when terminating Plaintiff, retaliating against Plaintiff
 2 for making complaints of discrimination and requesting and using medical leave during his
 3 employment. Microsoft's stated reason for the termination is a pretext.

4 PARTIES

5 1. Plaintiff DRAGAN ZARIC ("Plaintiff" or "Zaric") is, and at all times herein was, an
 6 individual residing in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, and employed by Defendant
 7 Microsoft Corporation in the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

8 2. Defendant MICROSOFT CORPORATION ("Microsoft" or "Defendant") is and at 9 all times herein mentioned was a Washington Corporation conducting business within the County
 10 of Los Angeles, State of California and subject to the laws of California Government Code §§12940
 11 et seq. and 12900 et. seq.

12 3. Plaintiff is ignorant of the true names and capacities of Defendants sued as DOES 1 13 through 10, inclusive, and therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff will 14 amend this complaint to allege their true names and capacities when ascertained. Plaintiff is 15 informed and believes, and alleges that each of the fictitiously named Defendants is responsible for 16 the alleged occurrences and injuries to Plaintiff.

17 4. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and alleges that, at all times herein mentioned,
 18 Defendants, and each of them, were the agents or employees of each of the other Defendants, and 19 in doing the things hereinafter alleged, were acting within the course and scope of such agency
 20 and/or employment and with the permission and consent of his/her co-Defendants. All of the named
 21 defendants may be collectively referred to herein as "the Microsoft Defendants."

22 VENUE AND JURISDICTION

23 5. Venue is proper under Code of Civil Procedure §395, and under the FEHA.
 24 Plaintiff's injuries occurred within this jurisdiction, and the actions that give rise to Plaintiff's
 25 complaint arose within this jurisdiction.

26 EXHAUSTION OF ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

27 6. Plaintiff exhausted his administrative remedies by filing complaints for 28 discrimination, retaliation and related claims under California's Fair Employment and Housing Act

(the FEHA) with the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing on March 30, 2022 and thereafter, receiving "right to sue" notifications on March 30, 2022. Thus, Plaintiff has duly exhausted all of the required administrative proceedings and now properly files this Complaint for Damages.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

Microsoft's Background

7. Defendant Microsoft Corporation is an American multinational technology corporation which produces computer software, consumer electronics, personal computers, and related services. It is best known for its Microsoft Windows line of operating systems, the Microsoft Office suite, and the Internet Explorer and Edge web browsers, along with the Xbox video game console. Microsoft routinely ranks in the top 25 companies in the Fortune 500 rankings of the largest domestic corporations by total annual revenue and globally, it is one of the largest software makers by revenue. It is considered one of the "Big Five" American information technology companies. In April 2019, Microsoft reached the trillion-dollar market cap, becoming the third U.S. public company to be valued at over $1 trillion. As of 2020, Microsoft has the third-highest global brand valuation of any company.

8. Microsoft operates nationally and globally, with multiple "campuses" worldwide. Its campus in Mountain View, California houses thousands of Microsoft employees, with plans to further expand that campus on a significant scale. Microsoft employs thousands of employees throughout California, including within Los Angeles County.

9. Microsoft is, and at all relevant times was, a covered employer under the FEHA, codified at California Government Code § 12926(d). As alleged below, Microsoft placed Profits Over Older People ("POOP") when terminating Plaintiff. Microsoft therefore has engaged in POOP.

Plaintiff's Background

10. Plaintiff Dragan Zaric is a 61 year-old individual who was first employed by Microsoft in or about July of 2018. Plaintiff was born in Serbia and attended the University of Belgrade, where he attained a masters degree in Electrical, Electronics, and Communications

1 Engineering. He speaks English as his second language and with an accent. He immigrated to the 2 United States in 1989.

3 11. Plaintiff was hired and worked for Microsoft as an Account Delivery Executive
4 ("ADE"). At all times during Plaintiff's 3½ years of employment with Microsoft, Plaintiff
5 performed his duties and responsibilities in a positive and exemplary manner. Plaintiff threw 6 himself into his work at Microsoft, regularly working long hours to ensure that his work was 7 completed and his project timelines, budgeting, and revenue forecasts were met.

8 12. Prior to joining Microsoft, Plaintiff worked for many years with other information 9 technology and/or software companies, where he specialized in customer solutions project sales and 10 implementation. Plaintiff's continued success in his field led to Microsoft's pursuit of him as a 11 candidate for employment. Plaintiff ultimately accepted his ADE position at Microsoft pursuant to 12 a lucrative offer of salary and company stock options.

13 Facts Establishing Plaintiff's Protected Activity and Defendants' Wrongful, Discriminatory, 14 Retaliatory, and Illegal Conduct Giving Rise to This Complaint.

15 13. Because of his initial success in his work for Microsoft, Plaintiff was assigned to a 16 large, strategic pursuit for Microsoft's corporate customer, Wells Fargo, for which Microsoft had 17 budgeted $8 million in service revenue. In 2019 and continuing through the third quarter of 2020,
18 Plaintiff's work efforts and performance were primarily focused on the Wells Fargo project.
19 Plaintiff worked tirelessly for nearly a full year with the Microsoft account team to define, scope
20 and propose the services engagement to Wells Fargo before the deal could be confirmed and 21 finalized. Plaintiff and his team were finally able to finalize the terms of Microsoft's contract with 22 Wells Fargo in June of 2020.

23 14. As a result of the intensive focus on the presale efforts for the Wells Fargo project,
24 Plaintiff's billable utilization during 2019 and the first half of 2020 was artificially low, as he did
25 not have the opportunity to work on many other billable projects during that time. However,
26 Plaintiff's manager during that period, Tracy Kasemeier, understood and memorialized in Plaintiff's
27 performance reviews that, although some of Plaintiff's performance metrics in the first quarter of 28 2020 were low, this was directly attributable to the substantial pre-sale work-up he had been required

1 to perform on the Wells Fargo project, and the non-billable time invested by Plaintiff on the project
2 would ultimately generate substantial revenue for Microsoft once the Wells Fargo project entered
3 its billable phase. In that regard, Kasemeier approved of the relative short-term investment of 4 Plaintiff's non-billable time in favor of the long-term financial benefit that Microsoft would reap
5 from the project. Plaintiff also expected to earn substantial incentive compensation in his work for 6 Microsoft once the Wells Fargo project entered its billable phase and began providing its 7-figure
7 revenue stream to Microsoft. The Wells Fargo project ultimately entered its billable phase in July 8 of 2020.

9 15. In or about the end of May of 2020, Kasemeier moved to another position and ceased
10 being Plaintiff's manager.

11 16. Unfortunately, as it happens to many older workers, Plaintiff's body started to break
12 down. In August of 2020, approximately one month after the Wells Fargo project that Plaintiff had 13 been ramping up for over a year entered its billable phase, Plaintiff was diagnosed with a life-
14 threatening heart condition that required him to promptly undergo surgery to correct it. After his 15 diagnosis, Plaintiff informed Microsoft's Management and Human Resources about Plaintiff's 16 disability and his need for time off to receive medical treatment.

17 17. In or about September of 2020, Plaintiff informed his managers at Microsoft that he 18 would be undergoing open heart surgery in October 2020 and that he would require time-off from 19 work for medical treatment and recovery. At the time Plaintiff disclosed his disability to Microsoft, 20 Plaintiff was and had been a loyal, productive member of the Microsoft team.

21 18. In or about early September of 2020, and just prior to Plaintiff undergoing open heart
22 surgery, Microsoft assigned a new manager, Jim Lutz ("Lutz"), as the supervisor of Plaintiff's team,
23 and Plaintiff began reporting to Lutz.

24 19. In October of 2020, Plaintiff took medical leave to undergo open heart surgery. In 25 connection with Plaintiff taking medical leave, Lutz brought over one of Plaintiff's peers, a younger,
26 American-born male with no known disabilities or significant health history, allegedly to fill in for 27 Plaintiff on the Wells Fargo account while Plaintiff was on disability leave. Plaintiff timely and 28 properly completed all his milestones on the Wells Fargo project prior to going on disability leave.

20. At the end of November 2020, approximately six (6) weeks after undergoing heart surgery, Plaintiff returned to work from his medical leave. Plaintiff returned to work earlier than expected and against his own doctor's recommendations in order to resume his work on the Wells Fargo project as quickly as possible.

21. Despite Plaintiff's steadfast dedication to the Wells Fargo project and his exemplary performance in advancing that project prior to his medical leave, when Plaintiff returned to work from leave, Lutz informed Plaintiff that he had been taken off Wells Fargo account "because [his] successor was a better fit." The individual Lutz assigned as Plaintiff's successor on the Wells Fargo account, the substantially younger American-born worker with no known disabilities that had been covering the account during Plaintiff's disability leave, was a close friend of Lutz's.

22. Plaintiff profoundly disagreed with Lutz's discriminatory decision to take him off an account he had been working on and developing for 2 ½ years, and reasonably believed that Lutz's decision to do so was wrongful and the result of discriminatory and retaliatory animus against him. Lutz's decision to remove Plaintiff from the Wells Fargo account also negatively impacted Plaintiff financially, as Plaintiff would no longer receive his bonus for the revenue that was ultimately achieved on the account, which was the result of the years of Plaintiff's hard work on the account to finalize the deal and get the project successfully underway.

23. Plaintiff asked Lutz for a detailed explanation of why he was taken off the Wells Fargo account. Lutz took nearly a month to respond with his justification, which consisted of only generalized unsupported and false statements criticizing Plaintiff's performance. Prior to Lutz becoming Plaintiff's manager, Plaintiff consistently received praise for his performance at Microsoft. Plaintiff responded to Lutz to push back on the misrepresentations made by Lutz and denied the false claims Lutz had made regarding his prior job performance.

24. In the ensuing months, Lutz then proceeded to outwardly display animosity toward Plaintiff, continually and unjustifiably scrutinizing and criticizing his performance, while also harassing Plaintiff and humiliating him at any sign of a possible challenge being presented on one of his accounts/projects.

25. At the beginning of March 2021, almost two months before the next performance

2298 E. MAPLE AVENUE
EL SEGUNDO, CALIFORNIA 90245

1 review cycle, Lutz called Plaintiff to state that Plaintiff would be receiving a very poor performance
2 review because his billable utilization was low and that it was best for Plaintiff to look for another
3 job. However, Lutz had only assigned Plaintiff to one active project after his return from medical 4 leave, and as a result, there was no way for Plaintiff to improve his utilization metric without being
5 provided additional work. Lutz's veiled retaliatory threat of termination to Plaintiff placed Plaintiff
6 in a state of substantial physical and emotional distress.

7 26. For Plaintiff's April 2021 performance review Lutz first attempted to give Plaintiff
8 a poor review that was false and pretextual. Plaintiff complained about the review to the manager
9 above Lutz, Chris McCarthy ("McCarthy"), indicating that Lutz was placing false information in 10 his review to purposely drag down his performance rating and that he was being wrongfully targeted
11 by Lutz. Only after Plaintiff escalated the issue to McCarthy did Lutz give Plaintiff a slightly 12 better review.

13 27. Plaintiff continued to perform in exemplary fashion from April 2021 to September
14 2021, and Plaintiff's results and business impact were noted in his September 2021 performance
15 review report. However, Lutz remained intent on giving Plaintiff a poor performance review, and 16 in pursuit of that goal, Lutz fabricated two incidents to drag down Plaintiff's performance rating and 17 gave Plaintiff an "Insufficient Results" review. Lutz improperly gave Plaintiff a "zero rewards"
18 review, which deprived Plaintiff of merit-based incentive compensation and impaired Plaintiff's
19 ability to migrate to other positions within Microsoft.

20 28. Plaintiff again rejected Lutz's review of his performance and the intentional
21 mischaracterizations Lutz included in it. Plaintiff again complained about the review to Lutz's 22 manager, McCarthy, who rejected Plaintiff's concerns.

23 29. Plaintiff escalated his complaints regarding Lutz's wrongful review of his 24 performance to Microsoft's Human Resources. Plaintiff registered a formal Rebuttal Letter in the 25 HR system that documented his complaints. In connection with his rebuttal, Plaintiff also initiated 26 a complaint of discrimination with Microsoft's HR. However, HR conducted a perfunctory and 27 inadequate investigation, whereupon it concluded that Plaintiff had not been subjected to 28 discrimination.

30. Plaintiff continued to deliver a great performance after September 2021, which was again documented on the draft he received of his January 2022 performance review. Plaintiff exceeded his goals and metrics, which was documented during the course of his 1-to-1 meetings with Lutz. Lutz made no requests for improvement by Plaintiff during that period. At no point while Lutz was acting as Plaintiff's manager did he ever place Plaintiff on a performance improvement plan or other such performance action plan.

31. Plaintiff was scheduled to meet telephonically with Lutz on January 27, 2022 regarding his January 2022 performance review. In furtherance of that meeting, Plaintiff prepared a very detailed report of his performance outlining his great results and impact, which included overwhelmingly positive feedback from the Microsoft internal stakeholders with whom Plaintiff had been working regularly.

32. On January 27, 2022, Lutz joined the telephone meeting with Plaintiff accompanied by a Microsoft HR representative, and abruptly proceeded to terminate Plaintiff, allegedly for his performance not meeting "minimum performance standards," but without ever discussing Plaintiff's January 2022 performance review. Plaintiff's call with Lutz and HR lasted less than five (5) minutes. Lutz and Microsoft wrongfully terminated Plaintiff, based on his disability, his age, his national origin/ancestry, his complaints, and his requests for and use of medical leave.

33. By wrongfully giving Plaintiff zero rewards and poor performance reviews, Lutz impaired the possibility of Plaintiff transferring to another job within Microsoft and otherwise advancing within the company, which was known to Lutz at all relevant times. Plaintiff had interviewed for several open positions within Microsoft and was given an initial offer for another position, only to have the offer retracted after the hiring manager discovered that Plaintiff had been flagged as "ineligible for transfer."

34. Plaintiff was terminated from his employment for false and pretextual reasons. Lutz premised his decision to terminate Plaintiff on his claim of Plaintiff's poor performance, which was known by Lutz to be untrue at all relevant times. The truth is that Microsoft, through Lutz, considered Plaintiff's age, disability, and national origin in making the termination decision. In fact, Microsoft has retained, and/or has hired, less qualified, substantially younger, non-disabled workers

1 to perform Plaintiff's job duties. Similarly situated employees, who are substantially younger than 2 Plaintiff and who were not dealing with a disability and/or requesting medical leave, were not fired.
3 Microsoft was considering the long-term financial interests of the Company without paying any 4 regard to Plaintiff's civil rights when Microsoft wrongfully terminated Plaintiff.

5 35. Plaintiff's disability, age, national origin/ancestry, request for and use of medical 6 leave, and complaints of discrimination against Lutz were separately or together a substantial 7 motivating reason for Microsoft's decision to terminate Plaintiff from his job after 3+ years at 8 Microsoft Corporation. Defendants' actions, as alleged herein, constitute unlawful discrimination
9 and retaliation, in violation of California statutory and tort law. Defendants' actions, as alleged 10 herein, have caused harm to Plaintiff as set forth in greater detail below and as will be established 11 in greater detail at the time of trial.

12 36. As a result of being wrongfully terminated for discriminatory and/or retaliatory 13 reasons, Plaintiff has lost wages and his compensation package including important medical and 14 health insurance benefits, and the like. Plaintiff has suffered financial distress. Plaintiff lost his 15 dignity and self-esteem, and has experienced physical injury, illness, and emotional distress as a 16 result of Defendants' wrongful conduct as described herein.

17 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
18 RETALIATION (FEHA/CFRA)

(As Against Defendant Microsoft Corporation; and DOES 1 through 10)

19 37. Plaintiff hereby incorporates and realleges by reference all paragraphs enumerated
20 above and each and every part thereof, of this Complaint, with the same force and effect as though 21 set forth at length herein.

22 38. The FEHA bans retaliation against an individual that complains of discrimination
23 and against an individual with a disability who requests time off because of a disability. Gov't Code
24 §12940(h) & (m)(2). Further, the CFRA bans discrimination and retaliation against an employee
25 that requests and/or uses medical leave. Gov't Code §12945.2(k). California law recognizes that 26 employers such as Microsoft may not retaliate against an employee because the employee
27 complained of discrimination, took time off from work in the form of a reasonable accommodation 28 and/or approved medical leave, or requested to be reasonably accommodated and/or to take medical

1 leave.

2 39. The retaliatory actions of Defendant Microsoft against Plaintiff, as more fully set
3 forth above, include retaliation against Plaintiff because Plaintiff complained regarding the 4 discrimination against him by his supervisor Jim Lutz, and exercised his right to request time off
5 from work to care for and recover from his disability (heart surgery). Plaintiff had a target on his 6 back and was a candidate for retaliation after first being diagnosed with a heart condition and taking
7 time off from work to have and recover from heart surgery, followed by his later complaints
8 regarding the discrimination being perpetrated against him by his biased supervisor. Plaintiff was 9 protected from retaliation under the FEHA and CFRA.

10 40. Plaintiff experienced retaliation in violation of the FEHA, codified in California
11 Government Code §12940(h) & (m)(2), because he was subjected to adverse employment actions 12 after he complained regarding discrimination being perpetrated against him by his supervisor, he 13 notified Microsoft of his disability, and he requested reasonable accommodations, including time
14 off from work to care for and recover from his disability, and the right to return to work.

15 41. Plaintiff experienced retaliation in violation of the CFRA, codified in California
16 Government Code §12945.2(k) because he requested and took medical leave as authorized under 17 the statute and was subjected to discrimination and adverse employment actions by Microsoft in 18 response.

19 42. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendant, as described above, Plaintiff suffered
20 economic damages, including lost wages and benefits, and other compensatory damages in an
21 amount to be ascertained at the time of trial.

22 43. As a further proximate result of the aforementioned acts of Defendant, Plaintiff has
23 suffered humiliation, mental anguish, anxiety, stress, depression, and emotional and physical
24 distress, and has been injured in body and mind all to Plaintiff's damage in an amount to be
25 ascertained at the time of trial. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendant, as alleged above,
26 Plaintiff has suffered physical and mental injuries and has necessarily expended sums in the
27 treatment of such injuries, all to Plaintiff's damage in an amount to be ascertained at the time of trial.
28 As a further proximate result of the acts of Defendant, as alleged above, Plaintiff will necessarily

1 continue to expend sums in the future for the treatment of the physical, emotional and mental injuries
 2 sustained by Plaintiff as a result of said Defendant's acts in an amount to be ascertained at the time
 3 of trial.

4 44. As a direct and proximate result of the above-described acts of Defendant, Plaintiff
 5 has necessarily incurred attorney's fees and costs and, pursuant to the provisions codified in
 6 California Government Code Section 12965(b), Plaintiff is entitled to the reasonable value of such
 7 attorney's fees.

8 45. The above-described unlawful conduct of Defendant, which was perpetrated,
 9 authorized, and/or ratified by its officer(s), director(s), and/or managing agent(s), was willful,
 10 intentional, and malicious and done with the intent to vex, injure and annoy Plaintiff; and was done
 11 in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights, and, thus, warrant the imposition of exemplary and
 12 punitive damages in an amount sufficient to punish said Defendant and to deter others from engaging
 13 in similar despicable conduct.

14 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
 15 DISABILITY DISCRIMINATION (FEHA)

16 (As Against Defendant Microsoft Corporation; and DOES 1 through 10)

17 46. Plaintiff incorporates and realleges by reference all previous paragraphs, and each
 18 and every part thereof, of this Complaint, with the same force and effect as though set forth at length
 19 herein.

20 47. California Government Code § 12940(a) provides in pertinent part that, "It shall be 21 an unlawful employment practice . . . [f]or an employer, because of . . . physical disability. . . medical 22 condition. . . to discharge the person from employment . . . or to discriminate against the person . . .

24 48. As of 2020, Plaintiff suffered from a qualified disability, a heart condition, which 25 required surgery and medical leave. Plaintiff disclosed his disability to his employer, Microsoft.
 26 After Plaintiff disclosed his heart condition and need associated need for surgery to Microsoft, and 27 then took medical leave in order to undergo and recover from surgery, Plaintiff was harassed and 28 subjected to undue scrutiny and false criticism by his biased supervisor, and was ultimately terminated from his employment with Microsoft for a false and pretextual reason. This Cause of 1 Action stems from Defendant's discriminatory termination of Plaintiff after Plaintiff disclosed his

 2 disability, and took medical leave, during which he received care for it.

3 49. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendant, as described above, Plaintiff suffered
 4 economic damages, including lost wages and benefits, and other compensatory damages in an
 5 amount to be ascertained at the time of trial.

6 50. As a further proximate result of the aforementioned acts of Defendant, Plaintiff has
 7 suffered humiliation, mental anguish, anxiety, stress, depression, and emotional and physical
 8 distress, and has been injured in body and mind all to Plaintiff's damage in an amount to be
 9 ascertained at the time of trial. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendant, as alleged above,
 10 Plaintiff has suffered physical and mental injuries and has necessarily expended sums in the 11 treatment of such injuries, all to Plaintiff's damage in an amount to be ascertained at the time of trial.
 12 As a further proximate result of the acts of Defendant, as alleged above, Plaintiff will necessarily
 13 continue to expend sums in the future for the treatment of the physical, emotional and mental injuries
 14 sustained by Plaintiff as a result of said Defendant's acts in an amount to be ascertained at the time
 15 of trial.

16 51. As a direct and proximate result of the above-described acts of Defendant, Plaintiff
 17 has necessarily incurred attorney's fees and costs and, pursuant to the provisions codified in 18 California Government Code Section 12965(b), Plaintiff is entitled to the reasonable value of such 19 attorney's fees.

20 52. The above-described unlawful conduct of Defendant, which was perpetrated,
 21 authorized, and/or ratified by its officer(s), director(s), and/or managing agent(s), was willful,
 22 intentional, and malicious and done with the intent to vex, injure and annoy Plaintiff; and was done
 23 in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights, and, thus, warrant the imposition of exemplary and
 24 punitive damages in an amount sufficient to punish said Defendant and to deter others from engaging
 25 in similar despicable conduct.

 27 AGE DISCRIMINATION (FEHA)

(As Against Defendant Microsoft Corporation; and DOES 1 through 10)

28 53. Plaintiff incorporates and realleges by reference all previous paragraphs, and each

1 and every part thereof, of this Complaint, with the same force and effect as though set forth at length
2 herein.

3 54. Defendant Microsoft is an "employer" within the meaning of and subject to 4 California Government Code § 12900 et seq., commonly referred to as the California Fair
5 Employment and Housing Act ("FEHA").

6 55. California Government Code § 12940(a) provides in pertinent part that, "It shall be
7 an unlawful employment practice . . . [f]or an employer, because of . . . age . . . to discharge the person
8 from employment . . . or to discriminate against the person . . . in terms, conditions, or privileges of 9 employment." This Cause of Action stems from Defendant's discriminatory termination of 10 Plaintiff's employment by Defendants due to Plaintiff's age. Plaintiff was 61 years old, and 11 protected from discrimination based on his age, at the time his employment was terminated.

12 56. California has a strong public policy interest in protecting employees that work in 13 California from discrimination on account of age. For instance, Government Code § 12941 provides 14 as follows: "The Legislature further reaffirms and declares its intent that the courts interpret the 15 state's statute prohibiting age discrimination in employment broadly and vigorously . . . and with 16 the goal of not only protecting older workers as individuals, but also of protecting older workers as 17 a group, since they face unique obstacles in the later phases of their careers."

18 57. California law also recognizes that the use of salary as the basis for differentiating 19 between employees when terminating employment may be found to constitute age discrimination.
20 Govt. Code § 12941.

21 58. Defendants elected to terminate Plaintiff, a hard-working, higher salaried and older
22 employee. During his employment with Microsoft while he was on disability leave, the primary 23 project toward which Plaintiff had dedicated years of effort was reassigned to a substantially 24 younger employee, who then kept the project after Plaintiff returned from disability leave. After 25 Plaintiff was terminated from his employment, his duties and responsibilities were given to 26 substantially younger employees. Similarly situated employees, who are substantially younger than 27 Plaintiff, were not fired and did not have their job performance subjected to the undue scrutiny and 28 false criticism Plaintiff was forced to endure. Defendants proceeded to recruit and hire replacement workers as Account Delivery Executives who are believed to be substantially younger than Plaintiff. Thus, the stated reason is pretextual.

59. The discriminatory actions of Defendants against Plaintiff, including, but not limited to terminating Plaintiff from Plaintiff's employment due to Plaintiff's age, constitute unlawful discrimination based on age in violation of FEHA, codified in California Government Code § 12940(a).

60. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendants, as described above, Plaintiff suffered economic damages, including lost wages and benefits, and other compensatory damages in an amount to be ascertained at the time of trial.

61. As a further proximate result of the aforementioned acts of Defendants, and each of them, as alleged above, Plaintiff has suffered humiliation, mental anguish, anxiety, stress, depression, and emotional and physical injury or illness, and has been injured in body and mind all to Plaintiff's damage in an amount to be ascertained at the time of trial. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendants, and each of them, as alleged above, Plaintiff has suffered physical and mental injuries and has necessarily expended sums in the treatment of such injuries, all to Plaintiff's damage in an amount to be ascertained at the time of trial. As a further proximate result of the acts of Defendants, and each of them, inclusive, and each of them, as alleged above, Plaintiff will necessarily continue to expend sums in the future for the treatment of the physical, emotional and mental injuries sustained by Plaintiff as a result of said Defendants' acts in an amount to be ascertained at the time of trial.

62. As a direct and proximate result of the above-described acts of Defendants, Plaintiff has necessarily incurred attorney's fees and costs and, pursuant to the provisions of California Government Code §12965(b), Plaintiff is entitled to the reasonable value of such attorney's fees and costs.

63. The above-described unlawful conduct of Defendant, which was perpetrated, authorized, and/or ratified by its officer(s), director(s), and/or managing agent(s), was willful, intentional, and malicious and done with the intent to vex, injure and annoy Plaintiff; and was done in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights, and, thus, warrant the imposition of exemplary and

2 in similar despicable conduct.

3 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
4 NATIONAL ORIGIN/ANCESTRY DISCRIMINATION (FEHA)
(As Against Defendant Microsoft Corporation; and DOES 1 through 10)

5 64. The allegations set forth in the foregoing paragraphs are realleged and incorporated
6 herein by reference.

7 65. California law prohibits discrimination in the workplace, including discrimination
8 against workers on the basis of their national origin, or ancestry. The FEHA protects workers who 9 have been treated unfairly or were the victims of national origin/ancestry discrimination. As set
10 forth in greater detail above, Defendants are charged with discriminating against Plaintiff and using 11 Plaintiff's Serbian national origin/ancestry as a motivating factor in the termination of Plaintiff.
12 Plaintiff has requested and received "right-to-sue" notices from the Department of Fair Employment 13 and Housing under the FEHA to sue Defendants for discrimination on the basis of national 14 origin/ancestry. As alleged above, Microsoft treated Plaintiff differently than his peers and other 15 employees when it came to performance evaluations of similarly situated employees.

16 66. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that the stated reason for his 17 termination was pretextual and that a motivating factor in his wrongful termination by Defendants 18 was discrimination on the basis of Plaintiff's national origin/ancestry.

19 67. The discriminatory actions of Defendants against Plaintiff, including, but not limited
20 to terminating Plaintiff from Plaintiff's employment due to Plaintiff's national origin/ancestry,
21 constitute unlawful discrimination based on national origin/ancestry in violation of FEHA, codified
22 in California Government Code § 12940(a).

23 68. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendants, as described above, Plaintiff suffered
24 economic damages, including lost wages and benefits, and other compensatory damages in an
25 amount to be ascertained at the time of trial.

26 69. As a further proximate result of the aforementioned acts of Defendants, and each of 27 them, as alleged above, Plaintiff has suffered humiliation, mental anguish, anxiety, stress,
28 depression, and emotional and physical injury or illness, and has been injured in body and mind all to Plaintiff's damage in an amount to be ascertained at the time of trial. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendants, and each of them, as alleged above, Plaintiff has suffered physical and mental injuries and has necessarily expended sums in the treatment of such injuries, all to Plaintiff's damage in an amount to be ascertained at the time of trial. As a further proximate result of the acts of Defendants, and each of them, inclusive, and each of them, as alleged above, Plaintiff will necessarily continue to expend sums in the future for the treatment of the physical, emotional and mental injuries sustained by Plaintiff as a result of said Defendants' acts in an amount to be ascertained at the time of trial.

70. As a direct and proximate result of the above-described acts of Defendants, Plaintiff has necessarily incurred attorney's fees and costs and, pursuant to the provisions of California Government Code §12965(b), Plaintiff is entitled to the reasonable value of such attorney's fees and costs.

71. The above-described unlawful conduct of Defendant, which was perpetrated, authorized, and/or ratified by its officer(s), director(s), and/or managing agent(s), was willful, intentional, and malicious and done with the intent to vex, injure and annoy Plaintiff; and was done in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights, and, thus, warrant the imposition of exemplary and punitive damages in an amount sufficient to punish said Defendant and to deter others from engaging in similar despicable conduct.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
FAILURE TO TAKE ALL REASONABLE STEPS TO PREVENT DISCRIMINATION IN VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA GOVERNMENT CODE § 12940(k)
(As Against Defendant Microsoft Corporation; and DOES 1 through 10)

72. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by this reference as if fully set forth herein, each and every allegation set forth in each and every averment of Paragraphs set forth above in this Complaint.

73. California Government Code Section 12940(k)(the FEHA) makes it an illegal practice for an employer "to fail to take all reasonable steps necessary to prevent discrimination and harassment from occurring."

74. As alleged above, Microsoft's management retaliated against Plaintiff and discriminated against Plaintiff shortly after learning of Plaintiff's disability and Plaintiff taking medical leave, as well as after Plaintiff's complaints regarding discrimination against him by his biased supervisor. Instead of protecting an older, foreign-born worker with a disability, as required by law and by Microsoft's policies, Microsoft failed to take all reasonable steps necessary to prevent discrimination and retaliation from occurring.

75. Microsoft's failure to take all reasonable steps necessary to prevent discrimination and retaliation against Plaintiff, and terminating Plaintiff from his employment for false and pretextual reasons, and terminating Plaintiff because of his disability, his requests for and taking of medical leave, and his complaints regarding discrimination constitutes a failure on the part of Defendant Microsoft to take all steps necessary to prevent discrimination in the workplace, in violation of the California Fair Employment and Housing Act (FEHA), codified in California Government Code Section 12940(k).

76. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendant, and each of them, as described above, Plaintiff suffered economic damages, including lost wages and benefits, and other compensatory damages in an amount to be ascertained at the time of trial.

77. As a further proximate result of the aforementioned acts of Defendant, and each of them, Plaintiff has suffered humiliation, mental anguish, anxiety, stress, depression, and emotional and physical distress, and has been injured in body and mind all to Plaintiff's damage in an amount to be ascertained at the time of trial. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendant, as alleged above, Plaintiff has suffered physical and mental injuries and has necessarily expended sums in the treatment of such injuries, all to Plaintiff's damage in an amount to be ascertained at the time of trial. As a further proximate result of the acts of Defendant, as alleged above, Plaintiff will necessarily continue to expend sums in the future for the treatment of the physical, emotional and mental injuries sustained by Plaintiff as a result of said Defendant's acts in an amount to be ascertained at the time of trial.

78. As a direct and proximate result of the above-described acts of Defendant, Plaintiff has necessarily incurred attorney's fees and costs and, pursuant to the provisions codified in

1 California Government Code Section 12965(b), Plaintiff is entitled to the reasonable value of such
2 attorney's fees.

3 79. The above-described unlawful conduct of Defendant, which was perpetrated,
4 authorized, and/or ratified by its officer(s), director(s), and/or managing agent(s), was willful,
5 intentional, and malicious and done with the intent to vex, injure and annoy Plaintiff; and was done
6 in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights, and, thus, warrant the imposition of exemplary and
7 punitive damages in an amount sufficient to punish said Defendant and to deter others from engaging
8 in similar despicable conduct.

9 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
10 WRONGFUL TERMINATION IN VIOLATION OF PUBLIC POLICY
(As Against Defendant Microsoft Corporation; and DOES 1 through 10)

11 80. Plaintiff incorporates and realleges by reference all previous paragraphs, and each
12 and every part thereof, of this Complaint, with the same force and effect as though set forth at length
13 herein.

14 81. Under California law, no employee, whether they are an at-will employee, or an 15 employee under a written or other employment contract, can be terminated for a reason or reasons
16 that are in violation of fundamental public policies. California Courts have interpreted a 17 fundamental public policy to be any articulable constitutional, or statutory provision, or regulation
18 that is concerned with a matter effecting society at large rather than a purely personal or proprietary
19 interest of the employee or the employer. The public policy must be fundamental, substantial, and 20 well established at the time of discharge. California recognizes a public policy prohibiting age 21 discrimination, disability discrimination, and national origin/ancestry discrimination in the 22 workplace. This public policy is codified in the FEHA (California Government Code §12940 et 23 seq.). California also recognizes a public policy prohibiting retaliation against employees for 24 requesting and/or taking medical leave and for making complaints regarding discrimination in the 25 workplace. This public policy is codified in the FEHA (California Government Code §12940 et 26 seq.) and the CFRA (California Government Code § 12945.2 et seq.). It is a violation of California's 27 public policy against discrimination and retaliation of any type or form, to terminate an employee
28 for one or more unlawful reasons, as it is to terminate an older, foreign-born worker once that older

1 worker is diagnosed with a disability that is known to the employer and the worker has requested
 2 and taken medical leave and complained about discrimination against him in the workplace, as is 3 the case here.

4 82. Defendants named in this cause of action, and all DOE Defendants, and each of 5 them, discriminated against Plaintiff due to Plaintiff's age, disability, and/or national origin, and 6 terminated Plaintiff in violation of public policy, by terminating Plaintiff because of Plaintiff's age,
 7 disability, national origin/ancestry, requests for medical leave/reasonable accommodation, use of 8 medical leave, and/or complaints of discrimination in the workplace, which is barred under the 9 FEHA and the CFRA, as codified in California Government Code §§ 12900 et seq. and 12945.2 et 10 seq. As alleged above, Defendants considered Plaintiff's age, disability, national origin/ancestry, 11 requests for medical leave/reasonable accommodation, use of medical leave, and/or complaints of 12 discrimination in the workplace when terminating Plaintiff based on pretextual reasons.

13 83. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendants, as described above, Plaintiff suffered
 14 economic damages, including lost wages and benefits, and other compensatory damages in an
 15 amount to be ascertained at the time of trial.

16 84. As a further proximate result of the aforementioned acts of Defendants, and each of 17 them, as alleged above, Plaintiff has suffered humiliation, mental anguish, and emotional and 18 physical distress, and has been injured in body and mind all to Plaintiff's damage in an amount to 19 be ascertained at the time of trial. As a proximate result of the acts of Defendants, as alleged above,
 20 Plaintiff has suffered physical and mental injuries and has necessarily expended sums in the
 21 treatment of such injuries, all to Plaintiffs damage in an amount to be ascertained at the time of trial.
 22 As a further proximate result of the acts of Defendants, and each of them, as alleged above, Plaintiff
 23 will necessarily continue to expend sums in the future for the treatment of the physical, emotional 24 and mental injuries sustained by Plaintiff as a result of said Defendants' acts in an amount to be 25 ascertained at the time of trial.

26 85. The above-described unlawful conduct of Defendant, which was perpetrated,
 27 authorized, and/or ratified by its officer(s), director(s), and/or managing agent(s), was willful,
 28 intentional, and malicious and done with the intent to vex, injure and annoy Plaintiff; and was done

1 in conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights, and, thus, warrant the imposition of exemplary and
 2 punitive damages in an amount sufficient to punish said Defendant and to deter others from engaging
 3 in similar despicable conduct.

4 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

5 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for the following relief and for Judgment against 6 Defendants, and each of them, to be determined by a jury, as follows:

7 For all Causes of Action,

- 8 1. General damages in an amount according to proof, but in excess of the minimum 9 jurisdiction of this court;
- 10 2. For special damages in an amount according to proof, but in the excess of the 11 minimum jurisdiction of this court, to compensate the Plaintiff for Plaintiff's loss of 12 past and future earnings, and all damages flowing from Plaintiff's loss of earnings, 13 loss of job security, failure to properly advance within Plaintiff's career, damage to 14 Plaintiff's reputation; and for loss of all future earnings and benefits and job
 15 promotions and privileges Plaintiff would have had;
- 16 3. For consequential economic loss; but for the wrongful termination.
- 17 4. For all costs and disbursements incurred in this suit;
- 18 5. For all interest as allowed by law;
- 19 6. Where available and proper for attorneys' fees and costs incurred pursuing this 20 Complaint against Defendants;
- 21 7. For all emotional distress damages that properly compensate Plaintiff for Plaintiff's 22 pain and suffering as a result of Defendants' actions as fully described in this 23 Complaint for damages;
- 24 8. For Injunctive Relief and Declaratory Relief in Accordance with Law;
- 25 9. For all applicable and appropriate exemplary and punitive damages; and,
- 26 10. All other relief the Court deems proper and appropriate.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

CM-010

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR HANDLING UNLIMITED CIVIL CASES

The following critical provisions of the California Rules of Court, Title 3, Division 7, as applicable in the Superior Court, are summarized for your assistance.

APPLICATION

The Division 7 Rules were effective January 1, 2007. They apply to all general civil cases.

PRIORITY OVER OTHER RULES

The Division 7 Rules shall have priority over all other Local Rules to the extent the others are inconsistent.

CHALLENGE TO ASSIGNED JUDGE

A challenge under Code of Civil Procedure Section 170.6 must be made within 15 days after notice of assignment for all purposes to a judge, or if a party has not yet appeared, within 15 days of the first appearance.

TIME STANDARDS

Cases assigned to the Independent Calendaring Courts will be subject to processing under the following time standards:

COMPLAINTS

All complaints shall be served within 60 days of filing and proof of service shall be filed within 90 days.

CROSS-COMPLAINTS

Without leave of court first being obtained, no cross-complaint may be filed by any party after their answer is filed. Cross-complaints shall be served within 30 days of the filing date and a proof of service filed within 60 days of the filing date.

STATUS CONFERENCE

A status conference will be scheduled by the assigned Independent Calendar Judge no later than 270 days after the filing of the complaint. Counsel must be fully prepared to discuss the following issues: alternative dispute resolution, bifurcation, settlement, trial date, and expert witnesses.

FINAL STATUS CONFERENCE

The Court will require the parties to attend a final status conference not more than 10 days before the scheduled trial date. All parties shall have motions in limine, bifurcation motions, statements of major evidentiary issues, dispositive motions, requested form jury instructions, special jury instructions, and special jury verdicts timely filed and served prior to the conference. These matters may be heard and resolved at this conference. At least five days before this conference, counsel must also have exchanged lists of exhibits and witnesses, and have submitted to the court a brief statement of the case to be read to the jury panel as required by Chapter Three of the Los Angeles Superior Court Rules.

SANCTIONS

The court will impose appropriate sanctions for the failure or refusal to comply with Chapter Three Rules, orders made by the Court, and time standards or deadlines established by the Court or by the Chapter Three Rules. Such sanctions may be on a party, or if appropriate, on counsel for a party.

This is not a complete delineation of the Division 7 or Chapter Three Rules, and adherence only to the above provisions is therefore not a guarantee against the imposition of sanctions under Trial Court Delay Reduction. Careful reading and compliance with the actual Chapter Rules is imperative.

Class Actions

Pursuant to Local Rule 2.3, all class actions shall be filed at the Stanley Mosk Courthouse and are randomly assigned to a complex judge at the designated complex courthouse. If the case is found not to be a class action it will be returned to an Independent Calendar Courtroom for all purposes.

Provisionally Complex Cases

Cases filed as provisionally complex are initially assigned to the Supervising Judge of complex litigation for determination of complex status. If the case is deemed to be complex within the meaning of California Rules of Court 3.400 et seq., it will be randomly assigned to a complex judge at the designated complex courthouse. If the case is found not to be complex, it will be returned to an Independent Calendar Courtroom for all purposes.

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
 FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

IN RE LOS ANGELES SUPERIOR COURT) FIRST AMENDED GENERAL ORDER
 – MANDATORY ELECTRONIC FILING) FOR CIVIL)

On December 3, 2018, the Los Angeles County Superior Court mandated electronic filing of all documents in Limited Civil cases by litigants represented by attorneys. On January 2, 2019, the Los Angeles County Superior Court mandated electronic filing of all documents filed in Non-Complex Unlimited Civil cases by litigants represented by attorneys. (California Rules of Court, rule 2.253(b).) All electronically filed documents in Limited and Non-Complex Unlimited cases are subject to the following:

1) DEFINITIONS

- a) “Bookmark” A bookmark is a PDF document navigational tool that allows the reader to quickly locate and navigate to a designated point of interest within a document.
- b) “Efiling Portal” The official court website includes a webpage, referred to as the efiling portal, that gives litigants access to the approved Electronic Filing Service Providers.
- c) “Electronic Envelope” A transaction through the electronic service provider for submission of documents to the Court for processing which may contain one or more PDF documents attached.
- d) “Electronic Filing” Electronic Filing (eFiling) is the electronic transmission to a Court of a document in electronic form. (California Rules of Court, rule 2.250(b)(7).)

e) “Electronic Filing Service Provider” An Electronic Filing Service Provider (EFSP) is a person or entity that receives an electronic filing from a party for retransmission to the Court. In the submission of filings, the EFSP does so on behalf of the electronic filer and not as an agent of the Court. (California Rules of Court, rule 2.250(b)(8).)

f) “Electronic Signature” For purposes of these local rules and in conformity with Code of Civil Procedure section 17, subdivision (b)(3), section 34, and section 1010.6, subdivision (b)(2), Government Code section 68150, subdivision (g), and California Rules of Court, rule 2.257, the term “Electronic Signature” is generally defined as an electronic sound, symbol, or process attached to or logically associated with an electronic record and executed or adopted by a person with the intent to sign the electronic record.

g) “Hyperlink” An electronic link providing direct access from one distinctively marked place in a hypertext or hypermedia document to another in the same or different document.

h) “Portable Document Format” A digital document format that preserves all fonts, formatting, colors and graphics of the original source document, regardless of the application platform used.

2) MANDATORY ELECTRONIC FILING

a) Trial Court Records

Pursuant to Government Code section 68150, trial court records may be created, maintained, and preserved in electronic format. Any document that the Court receives electronically must be clerically processed and must satisfy all legal filing requirements in order to be filed as an official court record (California Rules of Court, rules 2.100, et seq. and 2.253(b)(6)).

b) Represented Litigants

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 2.253(b), represented litigants are required to electronically file documents with the Court through an approved EFSP.

c) Public Notice

The Court has issued a Public Notice with effective dates the Court required parties to electronically file documents through one or more approved EFSPs. Public Notices containing effective dates and the list of EFSPs are available on the Court’s website, at www.lacourt.org.

1 d) Documents in Related Cases

2 Documents in related cases must be electronically filed in the eFiling portal for that case type if 3 electronic filing has been implemented in that case type, regardless of whether the case has 4 been related to a Civil case.

5 3) EXEMPT LITIGANTS

6 a) Pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 2.253(b)(2), self-represented litigants are exempt
7 from mandatory electronic filing requirements.

8 b) Pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1010.6, subdivision (d)(3) and California Rules of 9 Court, rule 2.253(b)(4), any party may make application to the Court requesting to be excused 10 from filing documents electronically and be permitted to file documents by conventional 11 means if the party shows undue hardship or significant prejudice.

12 4) EXEMPT FILINGS

13 a) The following documents shall not be filed electronically:

- 14 i) Peremptory Challenges or Challenges for Cause of a Judicial Officer pursuant to Code of 15 Civil Procedure sections 170.6 or 170.3;
- 16 ii) Bonds/Undertaking documents;
- 17 iii) Trial and Evidentiary Hearing Exhibits
- 18 iv) Any ex parte application that is filed concurrently with a new complaint including those 19 that will be handled by a Writs and Receivers department in the Mosk courthouse; and
- 20 v) Documents submitted conditionally under seal. The actual motion or application shall be 21 electronically filed. A courtesy copy of the electronically filed motion or application to 22 submit documents conditionally under seal must be provided with the documents
23 submitted conditionally under seal.

24 b) Lodgments

25 Documents attached to a Notice of Lodgment shall be lodged and/or served conventionally in 26 paper form. The actual document entitled, "Notice of Lodgment," shall be filed electronically.

1 5) ELECTRONIC FILING SYSTEM WORKING PROCEDURES

2 Electronic filing service providers must obtain and manage registration information for persons
3 and entities electronically filing with the court.

4 6) TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS

5 a) Electronic documents must be electronically filed in PDF, text searchable format when 6 technologically feasible without impairment of the document's image.

7 b) The table of contents for any filing must be bookmarked.

8 c) Electronic documents, including but not limited to, declarations, proofs of service, and 9 exhibits, must be bookmarked within the document pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule
10 3.1110(f)(4). Electronic bookmarks must include links to the first page of each bookmarked 11 item (e.g. exhibits, declarations, deposition excerpts) and with bookmark titles that identify the 12 bookedmarked item and briefly describe the item.

13 d) Attachments to primary documents must be bookmarked. Examples include, but are not 14 limited to, the following:

15 i) Depositions;

16 ii) Declarations;

17 iii) Exhibits (including exhibits to declarations);

18 iv) Transcripts (including excerpts within transcripts);

19 v) Points and Authorities;

20 vi) Citations; and 21 vii) Supporting Briefs.

22 e) Use of hyperlinks within documents (including attachments and exhibits) is strongly 23 encouraged.

24 f) Accompanying Documents

25 Each document accompanying a single pleading must be electronically filed as a separate 26 digital PDF document.

27 g) Multiple Documents

28 Multiple documents relating to one case can be uploaded in one envelope transaction.

h) Writs and Abstracts

Writs and Abstracts must be submitted as a separate electronic envelope.

i) Sealed Documents

If and when a judicial officer orders documents to be filed under seal, those documents must be filed electronically (unless exempted under paragraph 4); the burden of accurately designating the documents as sealed at the time of electronic submission is the submitting party's responsibility.

j) Redaction

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 1.201, it is the submitting party's responsibility to redact confidential information (such as using initials for names of minors, using the last four digits of a social security number, and using the year for date of birth) so that the information shall not be publicly displayed.

7) ELECTRONIC FILING SCHEDULE

a) Filed Date

i) Any document received electronically by the court between 12:00 am and 11:59:59 pm shall be deemed to have been effectively filed on that court day if accepted for filing. Any document received electronically on a non-court day, is deemed to have been effectively filed on the next court day if accepted. (California Rules of Court, rule 2.253(b)(6); Code Civ. Proc. § 1010.6(b)(3).)

ii) Notwithstanding any other provision of this order, if a digital document is not filed in due course because of: (1) an interruption in service; (2) a transmission error that is not the fault of the transmitter; or (3) a processing failure that occurs after receipt, the Court may order, either on its own motion or by noticed motion submitted with a declaration for Court consideration, that the document be deemed filed and/or that the document's filing date conform to the attempted transmission date.

8) EX PARTE APPLICATIONS

a) Ex parte applications and all documents in support thereof must be electronically filed no later than 10:00 a.m. the court day before the ex parte hearing.

- b) Any written opposition to an ex parte application must be electronically filed by 8:30 a.m. the day of the ex parte hearing. A printed courtesy copy of any opposition to an ex parte application must be provided to the court the day of the ex parte hearing.

9) PRINTED COURTESY COPIES

- a) For any filing electronically filed two or fewer days before the hearing, a courtesy copy must be delivered to the courtroom by 4:30 p.m. the same business day the document is efiled. If the efiled is submitted after 4:30 p.m., the courtesy copy must be delivered to the courtroom by 10:00 a.m. the next business day.

- b) Regardless of the time of electronic filing, a printed courtesy copy (along with proof of electronic submission) is required for the following documents:

- i) Any printed document required pursuant to a Standing or General Order;
- ii) Pleadings and motions (including attachments such as declarations and exhibits) of 26 pages or more;
- iii) Pleadings and motions that include points and authorities;
- iv) Demurrers;
- v) Anti-SLAPP filings, pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 425.16;
- vi) Motions for Summary Judgment/Adjudication; and
- vii) Motions to Compel Further Discovery.

- c) Nothing in this General Order precludes a Judicial Officer from requesting a courtesy copy of additional documents. Courtroom specific courtesy copy guidelines can be found at www.lacourt.org on the Civil webpage under "Courtroom Information."

10) WAIVER OF FEES AND COSTS FOR ELECTRONICALLY FILED DOCUMENTS

- a) Fees and costs associated with electronic filing must be waived for any litigant who has received a fee waiver. (California Rules of Court, rules 2.253(b)(1), 2.258(b), Code Civ. Proc. § 1010.6(d)(2).)
- b) Fee waiver applications for waiver of court fees and costs pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1010.6, subdivision (b)(6), and California Rules of Court, rule 2.252(f), may be electronically filed in any authorized action or proceeding.

1 11) SIGNATURES ON ELECTRONIC FILING

2 For purposes of this General Order, all electronic filings must be in compliance with California
3 Rules of Court, rule 2.257. This General Order applies to documents filed within the Civil 4 Division of the Los Angeles County Superior Court.

6 This First Amended General Order supersedes any previous order related to electronic filing,
7 and is effective immediately, and is to remain in effect until otherwise ordered by the Civil 8 Supervising Judge and/or Presiding Judge.

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ADR) INFORMATION PACKAGE

THE PLAINTIFF MUST SERVE THIS ADR INFORMATION PACKAGE ON EACH PARTY WITH THE COMPLAINT.

CROSS-COMPLAINANTS must serve this ADR Information Package on any new parties named to the action with the cross-complaint.

What is ADR?

ADR helps people find solutions to their legal disputes without going to trial. The main types of ADR are negotiation, mediation, arbitration, and settlement conferences. When ADR is done by phone, videoconference or computer, it may be called Online Dispute Resolution (ODR). These alternatives to litigation and trial are described below.

Advantages of ADR

- Saves Time: ADR is faster than going to trial.
- Saves Money: Parties can save on court costs, attorney's fees, and witness fees.
- Keeps Control (with the parties): Parties choose their ADR process and provider for voluntary ADR.
- Reduces Stress/Protects Privacy: ADR is done outside the courtroom, in private offices, by phone or online.

Disadvantages of ADR

- Costs: If the parties do not resolve their dispute, they may have to pay for ADR, litigation, and trial.
- No Public Trial: ADR does not provide a public trial or a decision by a judge or jury.

Main Types of ADR

1. Negotiation: Parties often talk with each other in person, or by phone or online about resolving their case with a settlement agreement instead of a trial. If the parties have lawyers, they will negotiate for their clients.
2. Mediation: In mediation, a neutral mediator listens to each person's concerns, helps them evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of their case, and works with them to try to create a settlement agreement that is acceptable to all. Mediators do not decide the outcome. Parties may go to trial if they decide not to settle.

Mediation may be appropriate when the parties

- want to work out a solution but need help from a neutral person.
- have communication problems or strong emotions that interfere with resolution.

Mediation may not be appropriate when the parties

- want a public trial and want a judge or jury to decide the outcome.
- lack equal bargaining power or have a history of physical/emotional abuse.

How to Arrange Mediation in Los Angeles County

Mediation for civil cases is voluntary and parties may select any mediator they wish. Options include:

a. The Civil Mediation Vendor Resource List

If all parties in an active civil case agree to mediation, they may contact these organizations to request a "Resource List Mediation" for mediation at reduced cost or no cost (for selected cases).

- ADR Services, Inc. Case Manager Elizabeth Sanchez, elizabeth@adrservices.com (949) 863-9800
- JAMS, Inc. Assistant Manager Reggie Joseph, RJoseph@jamsadr.com (310) 309-6209
- Mediation Center of Los Angeles Program Manager info@mediationLA.org (833) 476-9145

These organizations cannot accept every case and they may decline cases at their discretion. They may offer online mediation by video conference for cases they accept. Before contacting these organizations, review important information and FAQs at www.lacourt.org/ADR.Res.List

NOTE: The Civil Mediation Vendor Resource List program does not accept family law, probate or small claims cases.

b. Los Angeles County Dispute Resolution Programs

<https://hrc.lacounty.gov/wp-content/uploads/2020/05/DRP-Fact-Sheet-23October19-Current-as-of-October-2019-1.pdf>

Day of trial mediation programs have been paused until further notice.

Online Dispute Resolution (ODR). Parties in small claims and unlawful detainer (eviction) cases should carefully review the Notice and other information they may receive about (ODR) requirements for their case.

c. Mediators and ADR and Bar organizations that provide mediation may be found on the internet.

3. Arbitration: Arbitration is less formal than trial, but like trial, the parties present evidence and arguments to the person who decides the outcome. In "binding" arbitration, the arbitrator's decision is final; there is no right to trial. In "nonbinding" arbitration, any party can request a trial after the arbitrator's decision. For more information about arbitration, visit <http://www.courts.ca.gov/programs-adr.htm>

4. Mandatory Settlement Conferences (MSC): MSCs are ordered by the Court and are often held close to the trial date or on the day of trial. The parties and their attorneys meet with a judge or settlement officer who does not make a decision but who instead assists the parties in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case and in negotiating a settlement. For information about the Court's MSC programs for civil cases, visit <http://www.lacourt.org/division/civil/C10047.aspx>

The Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation, Discovery Resolution Stipulation, and Motions in Limine Stipulation are voluntary stipulations entered into by the parties. The parties may enter into one, two, or all three of the stipulations; however, they may not alter the stipulations as written, because the Court wants to ensure uniformity of application. These stipulations are meant to encourage cooperation between the parties and to assist in resolving issues in a manner that promotes economic case resolution and judicial efficiency.

The following organizations endorse the goal of promoting efficiency in litigation and ask that counsel consider using these stipulations as a voluntary way to promote communications and procedures among counsel and with the court to fairly resolve issues in their cases.

STIPULATION – EARLY ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING			CASE NUMBER:

This stipulation is intended to encourage cooperation among the parties at an early stage in the litigation and to assist the parties in efficient case resolution.

The parties agree that:

1. The parties commit to conduct an initial conference (in-person or via teleconference or via videoconference) within 15 days from the date this stipulation is signed, to discuss and consider whether there can be agreement on the following:
 - a. Are motions to challenge the pleadings necessary? If the issue can be resolved by amendment as of right, or if the Court would allow leave to amend, could an amended complaint resolve most or all of the issues a demurrer might otherwise raise? If so, the parties agree to work through pleading issues so that a demurrer need only raise issues they cannot resolve. Is the issue that the defendant seeks to raise amenable to resolution on demurrer, or would some other type of motion be preferable? Could a voluntary targeted exchange of documents or information by any party cure an uncertainty in the pleadings?
 - b. Initial mutual exchanges of documents at the "core" of the litigation. (For example, in an employment case, the employment records, personnel file and documents relating to the conduct in question could be considered "core." In a personal injury case, an incident or police report, medical records, and repair or maintenance records could be considered "core.");
 - c. Exchange of names and contact information of witnesses;
 - d. Any insurance agreement that may be available to satisfy part or all of a judgment, or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy a judgment;
 - e. Exchange of any other information that might be helpful to facilitate understanding, handling, or resolution of the case in a manner that preserves objections or privileges by agreement;
 - f. Controlling issues of law that, if resolved early, will promote efficiency and economy in other phases of the case. Also, when and how such issues can be presented to the Court;
 - g. Whether or when the case should be scheduled with a settlement officer, what discovery or court ruling on legal issues is reasonably required to make settlement discussions meaningful, and whether the parties wish to use a sitting judge or a private mediator or other options as discussed in the "Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Information Package" served with the complaint;

- h. Computation of damages, including documents, not privileged or protected from disclosure, on which such computation is based;
 - i. Whether the case is suitable for the Expedited Jury Trial procedures (see information at www.lacourt.org under "Civil" and then under "General Information").
2. The time for a defending party to respond to a complaint or cross-complaint will be extended to _____ for the complaint, and _____ for the cross-complaint, which is comprised of the 30 days to respond under Government Code § 68616(b), and the 30 days permitted by Code of Civil Procedure section 1054(a), good cause having been found by the Civil Supervising Judge due to the case management benefits provided by this Stipulation. A copy of the General Order can be found at www.lacourt.org under "Civil", click on "General Information", then click on "Voluntary Efficient Litigation Stipulations".
 3. The parties will prepare a joint report titled "Joint Status Report Pursuant to Initial Conference and Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation, and if desired, a proposed order summarizing results of their meet and confer and advising the Court of any way it may assist the parties' efficient conduct or resolution of the case. The parties shall attach the Joint Status Report to the Case Management Conference statement, and file the documents when the CMC statement is due.
 4. References to "days" mean calendar days, unless otherwise noted. If the date for performing any act pursuant to this stipulation falls on a Saturday, Sunday or Court holiday, then the time for performing that act shall be extended to the next Court day

STIPULATION – DISCOVERY RESOLUTION

This stipulation is intended to provide a fast and informal resolution of discovery issues through limited paperwork and an informal conference with the Court to aid in the resolution of the issues.

The parties agree that:

1. Prior to the discovery cut-off in this action, no discovery motion shall be filed or heard unless the moving party first makes a written request for an Informal Discovery Conference pursuant to the terms of this stipulation.
2. At the Informal Discovery Conference the Court will consider the dispute presented by parties and determine whether it can be resolved informally. Nothing set forth herein will preclude a party from making a record at the conclusion of an Informal Discovery Conference, either orally or in writing.
3. Following a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue to be presented, a party may request an Informal Discovery Conference pursuant to the following procedures:
 - a. The party requesting the Informal Discovery Conference will:
 - i. File a Request for Informal Discovery Conference with the clerk's office on the approved form (copy attached) and deliver a courtesy, conformed copy to the assigned department;
 - ii. Include a brief summary of the dispute and specify the relief requested; and
 - iii. Serve the opposing party pursuant to any authorized or agreed method of service that ensures that the opposing party receives the Request for Informal Discovery Conference no later than the next court day following the filing.
 - b. Any Answer to a Request for Informal Discovery Conference must:
 - i. Also be filed on the approved form (copy attached);
 - ii. Include a brief summary of why the requested relief should be denied;

SHORT TITLE:	CASE NUMBER:
--------------	--------------

- iii. Be filed within two (2) court days of receipt of the Request; and
 - iv. Be served on the opposing party pursuant to any authorized or agreed upon method of service that ensures that the opposing party receives the Answer no later than the next court day following the filing.
- c. No other pleadings, including but not limited to exhibits, declarations, or attachments, will be accepted.
- d. If the Court has not granted or denied the Request for Informal Discovery Conference within ten (10) days following the filing of the Request, then it shall be deemed to have been denied. If the Court acts on the Request, the parties will be notified whether the Request for Informal Discovery Conference has been granted or denied and, if granted, the date and time of the Informal Discovery Conference, which must be within twenty (20) days of the filing of the Request for Informal Discovery Conference.
- e. If the conference is not held within twenty (20) days of the filing of the Request for Informal Discovery Conference, unless extended by agreement of the parties and the Court, then the Request for the Informal Discovery Conference shall be deemed to have been denied at that time.
4. If (a) the Court has denied a conference or (b) one of the time deadlines above has expired without the Court having acted or (c) the Informal Discovery Conference is concluded without resolving the dispute, then a party may file a discovery motion to address unresolved issues.
5. The parties hereby further agree that the time for making a motion to compel or other discovery motion is tolled from the date of filing of the Request for Informal Discovery Conference until (a) the request is denied or deemed denied or (b) twenty (20) days after the filing of the Request for Informal Discovery Conference, whichever is earlier, unless extended by Order of the Court.
- It is the understanding and intent of the parties that this stipulation shall, for each discovery dispute to which it applies, constitute a writing memorializing a "specific later date to which the propounding [or demanding or requesting] party and the responding party have agreed in writing," within the meaning of Code Civil Procedure sections 2030.300(c), 2031.320(c), and 2033.290(c).
6. Nothing herein will preclude any party from applying ex parte for appropriate relief, including an order shortening time for a motion to be heard concerning discovery.
7. Any party may terminate this stipulation by giving twenty-one (21) days notice of intent to terminate the stipulation.
8. References to "days" mean calendar days, unless otherwise noted. If the date for performing any act pursuant to this stipulation falls on a Saturday, Sunday or Court holiday, then the time for performing that act shall be extended to the next Court day.

STIPULATION AND ORDER – MOTIONS IN LIMINE

This stipulation is intended to provide fast and informal resolution of evidentiary issues through diligent efforts to define and discuss such issues and limit paperwork.

The parties agree that:

1. At least ____ days before the final status conference, each party will provide all other parties with a list containing a one paragraph explanation of each proposed motion in limine. Each one paragraph explanation must identify the substance of a single proposed motion in limine and the grounds for the proposed motion.
2. The parties thereafter will meet and confer, either in person or via teleconference or videoconference, concerning all proposed motions in limine. In that meet and confer, the parties will determine:
 - a. Whether the parties can stipulate to any of the proposed motions. If the parties so stipulate, they may file a stipulation and proposed order with the Court.
 - b. Whether any of the proposed motions can be briefed and submitted by means of a short joint statement of issues. For each motion which can be addressed by a short joint statement of issues, a short joint statement of issues must be filed with the Court 10 days prior to the final status conference. Each side's portion of the short joint statement of issues may not exceed three pages. The parties will meet and confer to agree on a date and manner for exchanging the parties' respective portions of the short joint statement of issues and the process for filing the short joint statement of issues.
3. All proposed motions in limine that are not either the subject of a stipulation or briefed via a short joint statement of issues will be briefed and filed in accordance with the California Rules of Court and the Los Angeles Superior Court Rules.

LOS ANGELES SUPERIOR COURT

MAY 11 2011

JOHN A. CLARKE, CLERK
N. Navarro
BY NANCY NAVARRO, DEPUTY

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FOR THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES

General Order Re)	ORDER PURSUANT TO CCP 1054(a),
Use of Voluntary Efficient Litigation)	EXTENDING TIME TO RESPOND BY Stipulations)	30 DAYS WHEN PARTIES AGREE
)	TO EARLY ORGANIZATIONAL
)	MEETING STIPULATION

Whereas the Los Angeles Superior Court and the Executive Committee of the Litigation Section of the Los Angeles County Bar Association have cooperated in drafting "Voluntary Efficient Litigation Stipulations" and in proposing the stipulations for use in general jurisdiction civil litigation in Los Angeles County;

Whereas the Los Angeles County Bar Association Litigation Section; the Los Angeles County Bar Association Labor and Employment Law Section; the Consumer Attorneys Association of Los Angeles; the Association of Southern California Defense Counsel; the Association of Business Trial Lawyers of Los Angeles; and the California Employment Lawyers Association all "endorse the goal of promoting efficiency in litigation, and ask that counsel consider using these stipulations as a voluntary way to promote communications and procedures among counsel and with the court to fairly resolve issues in their cases;"

1 Whereas the Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation is intended to encourage
2 cooperation among the parties at an early stage in litigation in order to achieve
3 litigation efficiencies;

4 Whereas it is intended that use of the Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation
5 will promote economic case resolution and judicial efficiency;

6 Whereas, in order to promote a meaningful discussion of pleading issues at the 7 Early Organizational Meeting and potentially to reduce the need for motions to 8 challenge the pleadings, it is necessary to allow additional time to conduct the Early
9 Organizational Meeting before the time to respond to a complaint or cross complaint
10 has expired;

11 Whereas Code of Civil Procedure section 1054(a) allows a judge of the court in 12 which an action is pending to extend for not more than 30 days the time to respond to 13 a pleading "upon good cause shown";

14 Now, therefore, this Court hereby finds that there is good cause to extend for 30
15 days the time to respond to a complaint or to a cross complaint in any action in which 16 the parties have entered into the Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation. This finding 17 of good cause is based on the anticipated judicial efficiency and benefits of economic 18 case resolution that the Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation is intended to 19 promote.

20 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that, in any case in which the parties have entered 21 into an Early Organizational Meeting Stipulation, the time for a defending party to 22 respond to a complaint or cross complaint shall be extended by the 30 days permitted
23

1 by Code of Civil Procedure section 1054(a) without further need of a specific court
2 order.

Civil Departments, Los Angeles Superior Court
